Welcome to the 2009 AOM Annual Meeting in Chicago

Welcome to the 2009 Academy of Management (AOM) Annual Meeting in Chicago

On behalf of the many AOM members and staff who have worked so hard to organize this year's conference, we welcome you to Chicago for the 69th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Management. With approximately 18,000 members from 106 nations, the Academy of Management is dedicated to creating, applying and disseminating knowledge about managing organizations. Our Annual Meeting provides an opportunity for us to come together and share knowledge, create and renew friendships, and develop our professional careers.

New Program Design

With a new conference design now in place, the Annual Meeting offers many opportunities to participate and learn during FIVE FULL DAYS of activities and events. We especially encourage you to make every effort to attend the following NEW events, all of which are free and open to all registrants:

All-Academy Breakfast Hour.
Sunday, August 9, 8:00 – 9:00 AM. Sheraton Chicago Hotel & Towers, Sheraton Chicago Ballroom.

Academy of Management President's Welcome Address. Sunday, August 9, 9:00 – 11:00 AM. Sheraton Chicago Hotel & Towers, Sheraton Chicago Ballroom

All-Academy Theme Program.
Sunday, August 9, 11:30 AM – 5:30 PM. Hyatt Regency Chicago.

All-Academy Closing Reception.
Tuesday, August 11, 5:00 – 7:00 PM. Hyatt Regency Chicago, Grand Ballroom

Program Participants

The Annual Meeting celebrates the work of all who participate in it. The 2009 Call for Submissions elicited 6,402 proposals for Scholarly Papers and Symposia plus 393 proposals for Professional Development Workshops. Evaluating these 6,795 submissions required the effort of 5,456 volunteer reviewers. We thank you all for helping us create the final program, which involves more than 7,000 individual participants.

2009 Theme: Green Management Matters

Our theme this year invites you to consider how and why Green Management Matters to AOM members. For some of us, Green Management Matters because it influences our approach to teaching, and the facilities we use to disseminate knowledge. For some of us, Green Management Matters because it provides an opportunity to actively involve our students in the process of learning about management. For some of us, Green Management Matters because it speaks to our personal values and concerns about the long-term health of society. For some of us, Green Management Matters because it is of increasing concern to the organizations we seek to understand and influence. We invite you to explore these and other ways in which Green Management Matters to you by attending the All-Academy Theme Program on Sunday. With an array of Professional Development Workshops and Scholarly Sessions, the Sunday All-Academy Theme Program addresses Green Management Matters exclusively.

Enjoy Chicago

The 2009 Annual Meeting is hosted by the wonderful city of Chicago, Illinois, USA. Located on the shores of Lake Michigan, the city of Chicago is rich in beauty, culture, history, and commerce. We invite everyone to explore this wonderful city and enjoy everything it has to offer. Welcome!

All-Academy Theme Session Highlights:

Green Management Matters as the All Academy theme for the 2009 Academy of Management Conference! How far this research domain has come! And the diversity of offerings reflect that growth and development. This year we were able to accommodate 34 out of 53 submissions, with an even distribution of PDWs (10), Panel Symposia (13) and Paper Symposia (11). We will approach a wide variety of topics from a variety of the perspectives and levels of analysis and engage practitioners and academics alike. We encourage you to review the program and check out all 34 sessions; and to make it easy, all (except one) are scheduled on the same day and at the same hotel – Sunday August 9 at the Hyatt Regency Chicago. As best as possible, we tried to cluster commonly themed sessions into tracks. And, to give you a flavor of what is in store, here is a taste.

Specific topics being covered span the spectrum. We have sessions on climate change, renewable energy, industrial ecology, systems analysis, research, rigor & relevance and even some sessions on the financial crisis. Those of you interested in discussing the challenges and opportunities of integrating environmental issues into curriculum or research, I hope you'll consider attending Greening Management Education (11:30-2:00pm, Hyatt Regency Grand B), Doing Research on Business and the Environment (2:30-4:00pm, Hyatt Regency Grand B), Multidisciplinary Teaching Perspectives (4:00-6:00pm, Hyatt Regency Grand B), Building Sustainable Business Programs (11:30-2:30pm, Hyatt Regency Grand A) and even Greening the Academy (4:00-6:00pm, Hyatt Regency Toronto). Some more topical and dynamic topics include Modern Agricultural Processes (2:30-4:00pm, Hyatt Regency Columbus U) and Greening the Built Environment (2:30-4:00pm, Hyatt Regency Toronto). And I hope that the irony won't be lost that sessions related to climate change will be held in the Acapulco room!

Sessions will cover these topics from a range of disciplines. Those of you interested in a psychological perspective may choose to attend Creating Sustainable Work (11:30-1:00pm, Hyatt Regency Columbus H) or Individuals and the Natural Environment (11:30-1:00pm, Hyatt Regency Columbus G), while those of you interested in a more sociological angle may like to check out Classical Sociologists Confront our Environmental Crisis (4:00-6:00pm, Hyatt Regency Columbus IJ).

And then there are sessions for those who want to hear from practitioners. Some include Overcoming Obstacles to the Green Transformation (1:00-2:30pm, Hyatt Regency Toronto), The Environment in Troubling Times (4:00-6:00pm, Hyatt Regency Columbus U) and the one session that will take on Monday August 10: Panel Symposium with the Chicago Commissioner of Environmental Affairs and the CEO of Growing Power (9:45-11:15am, Sheraton Chicago 6).

Business Policy and Strategy (BPS)

Irwin Outstanding Educator Award in Honor of Will Mitchell

Sunday, August 9, 2009 6:00PM - 8:00PM at Hyatt Regency: Truffles

Distinguished Speaker: Will Mitchell, the J. Rex Fuqua Professor of International Management, Duke U.

The BPS Division's 2009 Irwin Outstanding Educator Award honors a person who has demonstrated longterm dedication and commitment to the mentorship of PhD students and junior faculty. We hope you will join us for this session as we honor the myriad contributions and achievements of Will Mitchell. While service on dissertation committees is only one aspect of Will's contributions, it is notable that he has served as Chairperson on 29 dissertations and as a member of 28 more dissertation committees. The list of students represented by these 57 dissertation committees reads like a "United Nations of Ph.D. candidates." Over the years Will has influenced several generations of scholars and transmitted through them his values and skills. This is particularly impressive given that Will himself graduated only two decades ago and that during this period he managed to produce outstanding work and emerge as a highly productive intellectual leader on his own. The session will feature presentations by colleagues and former students of our honoree and will conclude with comments from Will. A wine and cheese reception will culminate the event.

Wiley-Blackwell Outstanding Dissertation Award Finalists Monday, Aug 10 2009 4:45PM - 6:15PM at Hyatt Regency: Grand C North

Organizer: Joanne Oxley, U. of Toronto

Finalists & Presenters: J.P. Eggers, New York U.; Felipe Monteiro, Wharton School, U. of Pennsylvania; Mario Schijven, Texas A&M U.; Jochen Schweitzer, U. of Technology, Sydney; Metin Sengul, Boston College.

This session showcases the research of the Wiley-Blackwell Outstanding Dissertation Award Finalists. Following an introduction by Joanne Oxley, BPS Division Chair-Elect, each finalist will make a short presentation of his or her research. The recipient of the award will be announced at the BPS Business Meeting immediately following the session. Don't miss this opportunity to learn about some of the most exciting research by the new generation of BPS Scholars!

BPS Program Tracks: Monday, August 10, and Tuesday, August 11

The 2009 BPS Program includes seven mini "conference tracks" organized around specific domains of expertise. Sessions for a given track are scheduled in the same room during the main BPS program. We hope that this approach facilitates discourse within tracks and contributes to building communities of scholars within the broad AOM program. The Tracks and Track Chairs are listed below. The number of sessions per track varies; please check the program for session & schedule details.

Conflict Management Division (CM)

This year Conflict Management Division provides a wide and intriguing group of workshops, symposia, and paper panels...valuable for both division members and the Academy at large. We've highlighted three of our outstanding offerings below:

How to Negotiate Your (First) Job Offer Negotiate Job Program Session #: 275 | Scheduled: Saturday, Aug 8 2009 1:20PM - 4:20PM at Sheraton Chicago in Chicago 10

This Professional Development Workshop consists of three parts beginning with a presentation by Professor Max Bazerman of Harvard Business School. Participants then will be paired and conduct a mock job negotiation followed by debriefing. Finally, an outstanding panel of senior faculty from multiple divisions (who are on the "other side" of the hiring decision) will discuss factors job candidates should consider when negotiating job offers, including what to ask for (the dimensions of the offer), how to negotiate for more time (handling exploding offers), solving the joint-location problem (spousal hires), etc. The session will conclude with question-and-answers for the panelists.

Dealing with Common Pitfalls and Misconceptions in Team Research: How to Do Good Team Research
Program Session #: 1210 | Scheduled: Tuesday, Aug 11 2009 8:00AM - 9:30AM at Sheraton Chicago in Chicago 8

This CM Showcase Symposia is co-sponsored by Research Methods and Organizational Behavior. As teams have become basic building blocks for many organizations, team research has taken an important place in the management literature. This panel symposium brings together the world's leading experts in the field to discuss widespread misconceptions and provide solutions to common problems associated with team research. The panel consists of John Hollenbeck, Katherine Klein, Steve Kozlowski, John Mathieu, Bernard Nijstad, Randall Peterson, and Laurie Weingart. The symposium will consist of three parts, dealing respectively with the conceptual, methodological, and statistical consequences of the complexities associated with team research. The specific topics that will be discussed are multi-level research in general, differences between team processes and emergent states, temporal issues, the pros and cons of different methods of team research (e.g., lab or field), the measurement of team processes, the role and aggregation of personality in teams, how to operationalize team diversity, and issues associated with (lack of) agreement and data aggregation.

Accounts, Apologies, and Other Facets of Uncertainty Management Accounts and Apologies
Program Session #: 659 | Scheduled: Monday, Aug 10 2009 9:45AM - 11:15AM at Sheraton Chicago in Chicago 8

Tyler G. Okimoto of Yale University chairs this outstanding panel of papers, three of which are included in the proceedings.

Relational Accounts: An Answer for Women to the Compensation Negotiation Dilemma (Hannah Riley Bowles; Harvard U. and Linda Babcock; Carnegie Mellon U.)

Abstract: Women face a compensation negotiation dilemma in which they have to weigh the economic benefits of asking for higher pay with the social risks of defying prescriptive sex stereotypes (Bowles, Babcock, & Lai, 2007). In four experiments, we show that enhancing the legitimacy of women's compensation requests does not eliminate the social risk of asking, and that eliminating the social risk of asking is not sufficient to legitimize their requests. We identify strategies for overcoming the compensation negotiation dilemma using "relational accounts" that simultaneously explain why the negotiating behavior is appropriate under the circumstances and affirm concern for organizational relationships.

The Unintended Consequences of Social Accounts: When Excuses Come at the Expense of the Team (Anthony Cobb; Virginia Tech and Rebecca S Lau; City U. of Hong Kong)

Abstract: Although plenty of evidence demonstrates social accounts can mitigate negative reactions to account givers, little work explores what other unintended and often negative effects they can produce. These effects were examined in an experiment comparing two common excuses for a performance failure: one attributing failure to two other members of a project team and the other to a non-team related event.

Both excuses achieved the traditional aims of an account: they mitigated blame and enhanced a range of performance and fairness perceptions of the poor performer. Team-level outcomes, however, differed sharply between the accounts. When failure was attributed to two team members, substantial drops occurred in expectations of team performance efforts, team citizenship behavior, project problems and success, and how fairly the team would handle distributive, procedural, and interactional issues. Attitude and fairness theories guide this study. Implications for future research and managerial uses of social accounts are discussed.

But I Said I Was Sorry! On the Importance of Matching Apologies to Victim Self-construals (Ryan Fehr; U. of Maryland, College Park and Michele J. Gelfand; U. of Maryland; Winner of CM Division Best Paper Award - New Directions)

Abstract: Apologies are useful social tools that can act as catalysts in the resolution of conflict and inspire forgiveness. Yet as numerous real-world blunders attest. apologies are not always effective. Whereas many apologies lead to forgiveness and reconciliation, others simply fall on deaf ears. Despite the fact that apologies differ in their effectiveness, most research has focused on apologies as dichotomous phenomena wherein a victim either a) receives an apology or b) doesn't. Psychological research has yet to elucidate which components of apologies are most effective, and for whom. The present research begins to address this gap by testing the theory that perpetrators' apologies are most likely to inspire victim forgiveness when their components align with victims' self-construals. Regression and hierarchical linear modeling analyses from two studies support the primary hypotheses. As predicted, victims who emphasize the independent, relational, and collective selves reacted most positively to apologies that contained offers of compensation, expressions of empathy, and acknowledgements of violated rules/norms, respectively. These effects were robust across three levels of harm severity.

A Tale of Two Theories: Integrating the Uncertainty
Management and Group Value models of Justice
(Leigh Plunkett Tost; Duke U., Steven Blader; New York
U., and Kimberly A Wade-Benzoni; Duke U.)

Abstract: Three studies – a vignette study, a survey, and a laboratory experiment – were conducted to reconcile two of the most dominant theories in the justice literature, the uncertainty management and group value theories. These studies hypothesize and find an interactive pattern that reconciles these theories. In particular, they find that the predictions of the uncertainty management model hold among those with low, but not high, group identification. This effect is demonstrated on perceptions of fairness, reactions to treatment, and desire for social change. This pattern was expected because group identification neutralizes the threats posed by uncertainty. That is, group identification itself helps individuals manage uncertainty and thus reduces the need for the uncertainty-reducing function served by fair treatment. In addition to integrating two of the central theories in the justice literature, these studies also identify support for social change as a critical variable for future research on iustice effects.

Critical Management Studies Division (CMS)

The highlighted sessions for this year's CMS programme deal directly with the challenges we face in the current global recession. As managers around the globe struggle to adapt to the changing times, management academics are being asked how they are responding through their research and teaching activities. These sessions embrace this challenge.

Session #66: 'From the Ashes: What Should We Teach and Research in the Economic Crisis?' Scheduled: Friday, August 7, 12.10-2.10pm Swissôtel Chicago in Montreux Salon 2

The current economic crisis provides demonstrable, overwhelming and publicly accepted evidence of the failures and underlying contradictions of the current business system. This situation creates challenges and opportunities for teaching. As our students experience the crisis (directly and in the media), the political economy of management has an unprecedented immediate interest. This opens debate about the nature of management, consumption, finance, markets and the state. The PDW session will provide an opportunity to share and develop approaches to teaching and researching the political economy of management and organization in the current capitalist crisis.

Session # 1075 'After the Fall: Saving Management Knowledge from Itself 'Scheduled Monday, Aug 10 2009 4:45PM - 6:15PM at Hyatt Regency Chicago in Toronto The environmental consequences of long-term oil dependence together with the social consequences of the recession and the credit crisis are but two sides of a broader emergency that is provoking widespread pain, anguish and violence worldwide. These conditions have prompted a number of management scholars to ask if the knowledge and practice they develop and reproduce is part of the problem, or part of the solution. This symposium sketches new forms of management knowledge production – new theoretical and research agendas, new curricula and new ways of publishing.

Session #: 1309 'The Employee Free Choice Act and the Prospects for a New Green Social Contract. Scheduled: Tuesday, Aug 11 2009 9:45AM - 11:15AM at Hyatt Regency Chicago in Toronto The New Deal delivered what economist Joseph Schumpeter called "laborist capitalism," a transformed capitalism affording workers rising wages and benefits as well as power in the enterprise. The current conditions appear to demand equally bold and direct action. Action that not only responds to the challenge of intensified international competition, aggressive anti-union strategies by employers, and often hostile government, but also to the global challenge of creating environmentally sustainable economic relations. Labor activists believe that they have a new opportunity to restore balance in the American economy, to boost labor organizing and response to global challenges. The primary vehicle is the proposed Employee Free Choice Act (EFCA), which would require employers to recognize unions once a majority of workers sign authorization cards. This contemporary form of laborist capitalism might combine a vibrant green high-wage sector, a renewal of unionism, new patterns of equity and inclusion, and flexible technologies that enhance quality and sustain employment. This session will introduce the key features of the EFCA and explore its prospects for contributing to a new form of Green social contract between labour and capital.

Entrepreneurship Division (ENT)

This year represents and extremely rich selection of thematic PDWs, Paper Sessions and Symposia (including not just one but two Showcase symposia on Business Models) on Theory, Method, and a range of topical areas of interest for those in the Entrepreneurship Division, of those just interested in entrepreneurship. To emphasize the increasingly international character of our division let us highlight from the PDW program the following entry by a very strong team:

Entrepreneurship and Innovation in the Indian Context: Building a Research Agenda and its Challenges (Session #106)

Friday, Aug 7 2009 4:30PM - 6:30PM Hyatt Regency Chicago, room 'New Orleans"

A session relevant to all those who teach entrepreneurship has been organized in cooperation with U.S. Association for Small Business (USASBE). It will focus on innovative approaches to curriculum development and classroom instruction.

Learning from USASBE Best Practices in Entrepreneurship Pedagogy (Session #1312) Tuesday, Aug 11 2009 9:45AM - 11:15AM Hyatt Regency Chicago in Grand D North

A third session that every division member is strongly encouraged to attend (and chances are this year we will have seats for all!) is the Business Meeting, where key developments in the division will be discussed, and divisional awards will be presented:

ENT Business Meeting (Program Session #1156) Monday, Aug 10 2009 6:30PM - 7:30PM Hyatt Regency Chicago, in Grand B

Come out and see what's happening in the division, and take advantage of the reception that will take place immediately following the Business Meeting!

Health Care Management Division (HCM)

Our PDW program includes a number of interesting and innovative sessions designed for participants at all stages of their careers. In particular, we highlight here a session geared toward those who are now contemplating future retirement. The purpose of this PDW workshop is to examine the nature and options associated with late career transitions including retirement itself. Panelists will address a series of issues related to preand post-retirement career strategies and interactive conversations among all those in attendance will be encouraged.

Transitioning Toward Retirement and Beyond Saturday, August 8, 2009 10:40AM to 12:40PM Swissôtel Chicago, Vevey Salon 3

We also have an exciting scholarly program this year which includes five symposia (two including showcase symposia), nine paper sessions, two visual paper sessions, and ten interactive paper sessions. In addition to the scholarly program are four sessions of special note. The first is our HCM distinguished speaker session which features Marlena Fiol and Edward O'Connor of the University of Colorado at Denver who will speak on the topic "Managing Intractable Conflicts: The Case of Hospital-Physician Relations." The second is our business meeting where we will recognize the winners of our best papers and review awards. The third session is our divisional reception which will provide an opportunity to have great food, in addition to the great camaraderie among old and new friends. The fourth session is our first divisional networking breakfast. Bring your research ideas and business cards and prepare to network, network, network! We are looking forward to seeing all of your there!

HCM Distinguished Speaker Monday, August 10, 4:45PM - 6:15PM Swissôtel Chicago, Vevey Salon 4

HCM Business Meeting Monday, August 10, 6:30PM - 7:30PM Swissôtel Chicago, Vevey Salon 4

Management History (MH)

Considered by many as the cradle of industrial psychology, Western Electric's Hawthorne works facility, west of Chicago, is the Management History Division's hallmark site visit this year, providing a lens through which to view the rich industrial history of 20th Century America (Friday afternoon, August 7; meet at the Swissôtel at 1:00pm).

A series of excellent symposia, including a tribute to well-known Hawthorne researcher, Al Bolton, and the showcase examination of the links between cultural mythologies and leadership styles, is capped off by a conversation with corporate culture guru, Ed Schein (Sunday afternoon, August 9 at 4.45pm in the Swissôtel, St. Gallen Salon 1).

Managerial and Organizational Cognition (MOC)

We hope you will join us for what promises to be an exciting and action –packed series of sessions on a range of topics from 'Information Processing and Sensemaking in Crises and Uncertainty' to 'Team Learning' to 'Cognitive, Affective and Behavioral Processes in Leadership' to 'Knowledge, Expertise, Creativity and Innovation'. Our sessions span the individual, team, organizational and inter-organizational levels of analysis with applications across a truly fascinating range of contexts.

Why not start your conference activities by attending one of our many informative and engaging PDW sessions, such as Cognition in the Rough? This event is so successful that we are running it for the 12th successive year. Taking place on Saturday morning, this is a truly developmental experience in which renowned scholars offer one-on-one help to authors seeking formative feedback on their 'rough' ideas in the making. This year's expert scholars include Fran Ackermann, Neal M. Ashkanasy, Andrea Casey, Janet M. Dukerich, C. Marlena Fiol, Raghu Garud, Elizabeth George, Gerard P. Hodgkinson, Susan Houghton, George P. Huber, Lynn A. Isabella, Gerry Johnson, Chet Miller, Frances J. Milliken, Rhonda K. Reger, and Susan C. Schneider. Participants must pre-register for this session. Please contact the organizers at cirpdw@gmail.com for guidelines.

The MOC scholarly program opens with our Welcome Session, in which our Division's latest recipient of the MOC Distinguished Scholar Award, C. Marlena Fiol, will deliver an opening address offering her insights into the current state of the field and its future development. Following this session, why not continue with the MOC program by attending some of our many fine paper, interactive and visual sessions, and symposia? Among the many highlights within the latter stream of activity, immediately following our Welcome Session we have a symposium reflecting the theme of the conference, Green Management Matters entitled The Mundane Roots of Dramatic Change: Linking Everyday Practices and Routines to Sustainability. This symposium promises to offer an extremely engaging and informative set of interchanges with audience participation on the core theme of this year's program.

With a total of 20 sponsored symposia and 112 paper presentations, there is much food for thought, so follow the advice of our divisional motto and think it about!

Cognition in the Rough
Saturday, Aug 8, 8:00AM - 11:30AM
Hyatt Regency Chicago in Toronto

MOC Welcome Session: Featuring Prof C. Marlena Fiol, 2009 MOC Distinguished Scholar Monday, Aug 10, 9:45AM - 11:15AM Hyatt Regency Chicago in Truffles

The Mundane Roots of Dramatic Change: Linking Everyday Practices and Routines to Sustainability Monday, Aug 10, 11:30AM - 1:00PM Hyatt Regency Chicago in Truffles

Management Spirituality and Religion (MSR)

The MSR domain focuses on theoretical and applied research related to the relevance and relationship of spirituality and religion in management and organizational life. Daily meditation sessions continue to reflect a unique experiential feature of our annual conference program. In addition, we have an exciting array of scholarly paper sessions, featuring the latest empirical advances in MSR. We encourage all to attend.

This year, our PDWs feature a diversity of interactive and thought-provoking topics from the role of spirituality in leadership and creativity to implications of somatic awareness, and from work-life transitions to publishing in MSR. A conference favorite is our Doctoral Student and New Faculty Consortium, which drew over 100 attendees in 2008. This year's Consortium begins on Friday August 7th, from 5-7pm with Rev. John Huntington of Georgetown speaking on "Green Matters and the Global Stewardship of Faith Traditions." The program continues on Saturday, August 8th, at 2pm with several provocative panels and Dr. Andre Delbecq discussing "Where We Are and What's on the Horizon for MSR." Pre-registration is encouraged by visiting: http://secure.aomonline.org/pdwreg/logon.asp.

We are also pleased to co-sponsor several interdisciplinary sessions, including Complexity and Social Networking, which highlights emerging technology as an enabler of spirit-centered leadership and organizational performance. Join us on Saturday, August 8th, from 10:10-11:40am in the Hyatt Regency, Skyway 261 as we explore how social media leveraged in teaching, scholarship, and leadership can foster more compassionate organizations. Another session you won't want to miss is our Symposium on The Crash of 2008-09: Causes and Cures from a Management and Spirituality Perspective, held on Tuesday, August 11th in the Hyatt Regency Haymarket room. Participants will become better prepared to deal with the spiritual and values-oriented roots of our current economic and financial recession. We have plenty of other exciting and stimulating sessions this year, so attend as many as you can!

Finally, be sure to come and network with us during our MSR social on Sunday, August 9th in Hyatt Regency, Grand D North, and attend our business meeting afterwards to provide input into MSR's ongoing research agenda, programming, and governance. We hope you can join us for our 7th Annual Post-Conference Reflective Retreat as well, August 11th–14th at Chicago's Cenacle Retreat Center. Register by contacting Richard Peregoy, peregoy@gsm.udallas.edu.

Organizational Development and Change (ODC)

Welcome to the 2009 ODC Division Program!

Our 2009 program begins with over 38 PDW sessions including traditional favorites and innovative newcomers. One emerging theme this year is learning from many who have shaped the ODC discipline in the Academy. This includes a session titled, "Experience Speaks" with Ed Schein on research in organization and management consulting and a first ever session, "Learning from ODC Founders" with many of the earlier ODC division heads. including W. Warner Burke, Mike Beer, Frank Friedlander, Larry Greiner, Robert Golembiewski, Craig Lundberg, Tony Raia, Glenn Varney and Dale Zand. These influential pioneers with come together in a PDW format where they will share their career experiences and learning. They will also connect the early history of OD to the world we live in today. This will occur at the end of the Saturday PDW schedule and will be followed by an "ODC Founders Social" open to all.

With the highest number of papers yet submitted to our Division, the scholarly program promises to be diverse, provocative, and novel. Over 70 papers will be presented including 48 in twelve paper sessions. Our 2009 program will culminate with our Distinguished Speaker, Jane E. Dutton from the University of Michigan. Jane, one of the top ten most cited scholars on management, will be presenting on, "Booster Shots: Strengthening Change Agents for Sustainable Change." Jane's session on Monday afternoon will be followed by a unique division 'business meeting' using the World Café process designed to enable dialogue about ODC's future direction and priorities from the members' perspectives, then followed by our annual social.

Organization and Management Theory Division (OMT)

The OMT division has a very diverse and exciting program this year, and we hope you will join our PDWs, Paper Sessions (including Visual and Interactive), and Symposia.

The scholarly program includes our annual celebration of a distinguished career in the field of Organization and Management Theory. The 2009 OMT Distinguished Scholar is Christine Oliver who will be recognized at the OMT Breakfast and Distinguished Scholar Presentation. Other highlights include the winner of the Best Symposium Award, which this year focuses upon the Mortgage Meltdown and the insights offered by organization theories. Finally, the Business Meeting and Artifact (followed by the Meet OMT Social) should be on everyone's list of 'must attend'. This year, the Social is sponsored by Imperial College London and the University of Alberta.

Research Methods Division (RMD)

As in the past, the Research Methods Division has an exciting PDW and scholarly program with a variety of offerings. In total, RMD is sponsoring or co-sponsoring 37 PDWs. Additionally, RMD has 5 paper sessions, 22 interactive and visual papers, and is sponsoring or co-sponsoring 8 symposia. While all deserve highlighting, here are a few that have particularly broad appeal:

Ask the Experts: Qualitative and Quantitative Methods Saturday, August 8, 8:00am – 10:00am Sheraton, Sheraton 1

In this ever-popular session, experts in various methodologies sit at different roundtables (organized by topic) and answer the questions of participants. Some participants come with specific questions and analytical printouts, while some just come to listen and gather wisdom. This is an extremely informal session. Participants are free to move from table to table, gathering as much expertise as possible! No preregistration is required, so come see what it's all about. Stay for a minute or for the entire time.

(ORM): Insights and Advice from the Editor and Editorial Board Members

Monday, August 10, 3:00 – 4:30pm

Sheraton, Superior A and B

Organizer: Robert Vandenberg, U. of Georgia

Presenters and facilitators include Herman Aguinis, Indiana U., Bloomington; Anne D. Smith, U. of Tennessee; James M. LeBreton, Purdue U.; Robert P.

Gephart, U. of Alberta; Timothy Hinkin, Cornell U.;
Jeremy Collin Short, Texas Tech U.; and Terri A.

Scandura, U. of Miami

How to Publish in Organizational Research Methods

ORM's Editor, Robert Vandenberg, and several members of the Editorial Board (associate editors and reviewers) will briefly discuss the journal and the types of papers it seeks to publish. The panel will offer practical tips (i.e., "what to do" and "what not to do") to help participants get their work published in ORM. The session will then break into round table discussion groups. Participants are encouraged to come with questions regarding their methodological research, and particularly on how to craft an article for publication in ORM.

Research Methods Division Business Meeting

Monday, August 10, 5:00 – 6:00pm

Sheraton, Superior A & B

Division Chair: Charles Pierce, U. of Memphis Division-Chair Elect: Timothy Hinkin, Cornell U.

Program Chair: Stephanie L. Castro, Florida Atlantic U.

PDW Chair: Mark A. Griffin, U. of Sheffield

Past Division Chair: Mark Gavin, Oklahoma State U.

Join us for a briefing on all the activities the officers, representatives, and volunteers have engaged in over the past year. Then take advantage of the Social Hour to be held immediately following the business meeting. Great food and great conversation!

Social Issues in Management (SIM)

Besides the familiar consortia of the PDW weekend (now a Friday-Saturday stretch), the SIM Program features a host of innovative program events. The SIM Program is in three sections, the PDW Weekend, the SIM Special Program, and the SIM Regular Program.

The SIM PDW Weekend will be full of engaging sessions. SIM will once again be sponsoring or cosponsoring many sessions: The doctoral consortium, a junior faculty consortium co-sponsored with ONE, and a full day of research development activities also co-sponsored with ONE. We're also expanding our partnership with SBE. In addition to co-sponsoring the joint keynote by Prof. Deirdre McCloskey on Saturday evening (5:30-7pm, Buckingham Ballroom, Allerton Hotel, 701 N Michigan Ave.), there will be two sessions hosted by SBE: One on teaching business ethics and one on student plagiarism in the 21st century. Additionally SBE is offering free attendance to the SBE program on Saturday afternoon to all AOM members wearing their name badges.

Another highlight from this year's PDW program is a session on "Future Research Paths for Green International Management Studies: Research in Sustainability," also scheduled for Saturday afternoon (1-4:30pm, State Room, Fairmont). There is a full agenda for both Friday and Saturday, so please check the schedule of activities for complete information.

On Sunday afternoon, the SIM Special Program begins. Stop by to hear presentations by the SIM Best Dissertation Finalists (4-5pm, Regent Room, Fairmont), a first ever event. Come join Jeremy Moon and Donna Wood at SIM's first ever "SIM Salon" (5:15-6:15pm, Regent Room, Fairmont) to debate the utility of the multiple conceptions of corporate social responsibility and corporate citizenship that have populated the literature. And stick around to the evening to check out an entirely new session format, the "Push Panel," at which a group of scholars mine a classic work to create new concepts, theoretical nuggets, and other clever turns that push the insights of a classic into advances for today's social science (8-9:30pm, Crystal Room, Fairmont). This year's event honors the 40th anniversary of the publication of Edwin Epstein's The Corporation in American Politics.

On Monday, with the start of the SIM Regular Program, the second iteration of the Focusing on Fields Panel picks up where last year's sessions left off, examining how additional areas of work within SIM, including corporate governance, theoretical/conceptual ethics, corporate political activity, and work on social repair: alleviating poverty with the base of the pyramid do or do not constitute cohesive fields of study (8-9:30am, Gold Room, Fairmont).

Besides Epstein's classic, a major symposium honors the anniversary, the 25th, of another classic, Ed Freeman's Strategic Management, on Monday morning (9:45-11:15am, Gold Room, Fairmont).

For the first time in recent years, all the SIM panels are tracked, making it easier to catch up with the scholarship you want to hear.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR CITY OF CHICAGO

RICHARD M. DALEY

August 7, 2009

GREETINGS

As Mayor and on behalf of the City of Chicago, I extend warmest greetings to all those attending the 69th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Management (AOM) in Chicago.

Founded in 1936 by Professors Charles L. Jamison of the University of Michigan and William N. Mitchell of the University of Chicago, AOM is a premier professional association of scholars committed to creating and disseminating knowledge about management and organizations. As the oldest and largest scholarly management association in the world, AOM has members from colleges, universities and research institutions worldwide. With a theme of Green Management Matters, this year's meeting seeks to bring together members to consider how they can help managers and students address society's increasing environmental concerns.

While you are here, I hope you will take time to discover all that makes Chicago a great place to live and visit. I know you will like what you find. From our great architecture and our beautiful Lake Michigan shoreline, to our exciting nightlife and world-renowned cultural institutions, Chicago has something for everyone.

Best wishes for a successful and enjoyable event.

Mayor

Sincerely,

Special Thanks

Welcome to Chicago!

Welcome to Chicago!

The Local Arrangements Committee of the Academy of Management welcomes you to Chicago and the 2009 meetings! Many people have been working to make our meetings and this conference venue successful. We hope you enjoy the presentations, special events, consortia, and all the pleasures Anaheim has to offer. All Academy of Management events and sessions will be held at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, Sheraton Chicago Hotel & Towers, the Fairmont Chicago and the Swissotel.

A Little Bit of History

Chicago, Illinois has a rich and colorful history as one of America's most important, influential, and significant metropolitan areas in our great nation's landscape. It is the third most populous city and metropolitan area in the United States, after New York and Los Angeles (2.8 million and 9.5 million, respectively, as of the 2007 U.S. census). Chicago's world renowned skyline overlooks the southwestern bank of Lake Michigan. This geographic position derives one of Chicago's many sobriquets, "The Third Coast". Other nicknames include: "Windy City", "Second City", "City of Big Shoulders", and "Chi-town". Chicago welcomes 44.2 million visitors each year and is proud you have chosen to be one of them.

Established in 1833 and incorporated in 1838, Chicago has been a transportation, shipping, telecommunications, business, and cultural hub for over 170 years. It is the financial and industrial center of the Midwest region and operates everyday on a global scale. In the beginning, the land on which Chicago has been built was inhabited by Native American tribes Miami, Sac, Fox, and Potawatomi. The Ottawa, Ojibwa, and Potawatomi ceded the land to the U.S. government in the 1816 Treaty of St. Louis. "Chicago" is the French interpretation of the Miami-Illinois word for a type of leek known as shikaakwa.

Chicago has seen a devastating fire, a bar-setting World's Fair, and several notorious gangsters over the course of its vibrant history. U.S. President, Barack Obama, proudly calls Chicago home, and the city is often used as the backdrop for critically acclaimed and blockbuster motion pictures. O'Hare, one of Chicago's two international airports, is the world's busiest in terms of aircraft movement and second busiest in total passengers. Vastly multi-cultural, Chicago enjoys some of the world's best restaurants, art, music, sports, architecture, universities, and microcosms of diversity and culture.

Helpful Information for Your Stay in Chicago Access for People with Disabilities

Three of the four conference hotels are within easy walking distance of each other (Hyatt, Fairmont, and Swissotel). The Sheraton is further away from the others. Shuttle buses will be available to transport members with special assistance needs. Conference events will be in all of the conference hotels. For those needing special assistance for disabilities please let us know at needs@aom.pace.edu.

Copies and Business Services

All of the conference hotels have business centers which can meet your needs. There are also several full-service copy facilities located nearby.

Transportation

O'Hare International Airport (ORD), which is 13 miles from downtown Chicago, handles more passengers and aricraft than almost any other airport in the world. Airport information booths are located on the lower levels of the domestic terminals and on the upper and lower levels of the International Terminal. A foreign currency exchange is located on the lower level of the International Terminal. Taking a taxi to/from the airport varies depending on travel time from $30-$50 from O'Hare. However, for just $2.25 visitors can take the Blue Line train into the city. From there, people can transfer onto any of the CTA's other colored lines to get virtually anywhere in Chicago. Upon arrival, simply follow the "Trains to City" signs overhead or ask at one of the many information kiosks in the airport. Fare cards can be purchased at the entrance to the trains. For more information on ground transportation, please visit the following site:

http://www.flychicago.com/GroundTransportation/home.s

Midway International Airport (MDW) is conveniently located 10 miles from downtown Chicago. Midway's one terminal building has three concourses – A, B and C. Airport information booths are located in the ticketing lobby, baggage claim and the concessions food court. The airport is served by the CTA Orange Line train which is a 25-minute trip from downtown. Taking a taxi between Midway and downtown is approximately $28-$32. However, for just $2.25 visitors can take the Orange Line train into the city. From there, people can transfer onto any of the CTA's other colored lines to get virtually anywhere in Chicago. Upon arrival, simply follow the "Trains to City" signs overhead or ask at one of the many information kiosks in the airport. Fare cards can be purchased at the entrance to the trains. For more information on ground transportation, please visit the following site:

T-Shirts

"Green Management" really does matter, and this year the Local Arrangements Committee decided to do what we could to make a difference. Although we were able to find t-shirt suppliers who were environmentally- and socially-responsible, we ultimately realized that the biggest difference would result from saving the cotton, carbon emissions, etc. that would be required to produce and ship the t-shirts. Why bring one more t-shirt into this world when we really do not need it?

You can help us to make a difference with your contribution to the local charity that we have selected, Growing Power. Although you will not receive a t-shirt for your donation this year, you will receive the satisfaction of knowing that you have made a difference in the lives of local Chicago area residents who are growing their own healthy food, right in the heart of the metro area! Be sure to visit the Growing Power desk on site at the Hyatt to make your donation.

Learn more about Growing Power, Inc. by visiting their website: www.growingpower.org

Tours and Tourism Information

The Chicago Local Arrangements Committee will continue the practice of providing assistance with information on available tours so members can make their individual plans. We will be working with the Chicago Convention and Tourism Bureau to assist members with their touring plans. We are working with the City of Chicago to offer Green Tours for members. Check the meeting website for further information.

Green Zebra, 1460 W. Chicago – American Contemporary. Serves organic foods.

Saloon Steakhouse, 200 E. Chestnut – Serves local produce. Hopleaf, 5148 N. Clark – Fine Food. Better Beers,

Hopleaf, 5148 N. Clark – Fine Food. Better Beers, Wines & Spirits. Belgian Specialties. Serves local produce.

Hannah's Bretzel, 180 W. Washington – Chicago's first organic carry-out eatery, and one of the most earthfriendly businesses around.

Weather

August is usually hot and humid in Chicago. The average high temperature is 81°F (27°C), and the average low temperature is 63°F (17°C). The average precipitation is 3.6". Lake Michigan water temperature is usually the warmest it will be all year, (64°-67°F), and beaches are nearby. Chicago can also be windy, although the "windy city" reference is not to the weather, but to the "talkative" Chicago politicians in the city's early history!

Local Arrangements Committee

ESMT European School of Management and Technology

ESMT European School of Management and Technology was officially founded in October 2002 on the initiative of 25 leading German companies and Institutions. Based in vibrant and highly liveable Berlin, it is an international private business school with a distinct European focus, offering a Full-time MBA program (since 2006), an Executive MBA program (since 2007), and executive education (since 2003). The school also features an inhouse, research-oriented consulting unit, which specializes in the economic analysis of competitive and regulatory cases. The research output from ESMT's faculty is published in international academic journals, which are first-class in their respective fields. These research findings also provide cutting-edge and profound insights for the business community as well as the classroom through managerial publications and case studies. Our faculty comes from a wide variety of international academic and professional backgrounds and collaborates in a first-rate academic environment. This rare integration of research and practice makes ESMT an outstanding location for generating relevant and ground-breaking knowledge.

WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business)

WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) is the largest public business university in the European Union. It is located in Vienna, Austria – the gateway to Central and Eastern Europe (CEE), home to many international organizations such as the UN and the head-quarters of numerous multinational companies. It is the only university of its size to be accredited by EQUIS (European Quality Improvement System), and one of only four accredited business universities in the Germanspeaking world. The Financial Times has ranked WU's International Business program at place 18 in Europe, and WU's EMBA program came in at 52nd place worldwide in 2008.

WU's wide program portfolio ranges from undergraduate degree programs (Bachelor in Business, Economics & Social Sciences/Bachelor in Business Law) to graduate degree programs at the master level (Master in Business Education/Master in Business Law/Master in Finance and Accounting/Master in Quantitative Finance/flagship program CEMS Master in International Management joint-degree) and PhD level (Social and Economic Sciences Doctoral program/PhD Finance/Business Law Doctoral program). Additionally, WU will soon be launching new master's programs in General Management, Information Systems, International Business, Marketing, Socio-economics, Strategy and Innovation and Supply Chain Management. Moreover, MBA, EMBA and LL.M. degree programs as well as certificate programs are offered at WU Executive Academy.

WU has a strong international orientation: about 25% of its 22,000 degree students are foreign citizens. Additionally, about 1000 exchange students annually choose WU and the city of Vienna as their destination for an international exchange. With over 200 partner universities in 57 countries around the world, 9 annual summer programs abroad (mainly in Asia and the CEE region), and as member of PIM and CEMS, WU is part of an international network of excellent business schools and universities. WU's campus is a meeting point for students and faculty from all over the world, and is truly bilingual: numerous courses are held exclusively in English, 6 of the 13 master's programs will be taught entirely in English, and one program offers an optional English track. The whole campus is equipped with bilingual signage in both German and English.

CEE-related issues are among WU's core competencies. An active research presence across the whole range of relevant disciplines enables a faster response to issues concerned with ongoing developments. WU students benefit greatly from this approach. Numerous programs, including 'CEE Management', 'JOSZEF', the 'Master Class: Eastern Europe', the wide range of CEE languages taught at WU and the International Summer Universities offered in the region, focus on this crucial field and provide students with relevant professional skills.

The WU Executive Academy provides continuing education in the form of top-class professional training, both inhouse and for large companies. Its attractive and diverse set of programs and its professional management structure make the WU Executive Academy a respected presence on the international education market. Roosevelt University, Walter E. Heller College of Business Administration

Roosevelt University was founded in 1945 as one of the first institutions of higher learning nationwide to admit all qualified students, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, age or gender. It was named after Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt, in honor of their democratic ideals, and it was dedicated "to the enlightenment of the human spirit" by Eleanor Roosevelt. To this day, the University remains committed to those principles of social justice and inclusion, strongly driven by its mission as a national leader in educating socially conscious citizens for active and dedicated lives as leaders in their professions and their communities.

Likewise, the mission of the Walter E. Heller College of Business Administration is to give students a career oriented business education that emphasizes personal and professional integrity and stresses the social responsibility of business. The Heller College offers undergraduate programs leading to the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, with majors in accounting, finance, human resource management, management and marketing. Graduate programs include the Master of Science in accounting, human resource management and real estate and an innovative curriculum leading to the MBA. Programs are offered at both of Roosevelt University's campuses. The Chicago Campus is situated in the heart of the city's downtown business district while the Schaumburg Campus is located in the northwest suburban corridor, well populated by corporate and commercial centers. Drawing on Roosevelt's background and locations, the Heller College is an important urban training ground for socially progressive business leaders.

OBTS Teaching Society for Management Educators

The OBTS Teaching Society for Management Educators is the oldest international professional association dedicated to teaching and learning excellence in the organizational and management sciences. OBTS members include faculty at universities and colleges throughout the world, as well as business educators and management consultants.

The Society's mission is to enhance the quality and promote the importance of teaching and learning across the management disciplines. The Society accomplishes this mission through its award-winning publication, the Journal of Management Education, the OBTC Teaching Conference and Doctoral Institute held annually each June at a US college or university, scheduled online "webinars" with noted scholars and teachers, the teaching and learning resources available on our website (www.obts.org), and ongoing sponsorship and support for regional and international conferences whose focus is on management education and teaching. OBTS is committed to the future of high quality management education. We affiliate with other professional associations and interest groups who value teaching and learning, such as the Ph.D. Project and the UN Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME) initiative, and provide support and resources for programs that enhance the scholarship of teaching and learning locally, nationally, and internationally. OBTS welcomes as members management educators, consultants, and graduate students world-wide either individually or through our Institutional Affiliates program for doctoral-degree granting schools. Our membership year is September 1-August 31. Joining OBTS is easy and can be done online or by mail. Instructions are available on our website at http://www.obts.org/join-obts.html.

Kaplan University School of Business and Management

Kaplan University's School of Business and Management offers a revolutionary approach to business education that combines a top-notch academic program with highly credentialed faculty. We value academic leaders who bring professional work experience in their field, as well as distinguished academic achievements. The School of Business and Management's faculty focus on intellectual contribution and strive to continually innovate in the classroom by offering resume-building courses that can be tailored to students' career needs.

Kaplan University has grown from 34 online students in 2001 to more than 48,000 online and on-ground students in 2008.

Benedictine University

Benedictine University was founded by the monks of St. Procopius Abbey in 1887. Today, Benedictine enrolls more than 3,000 undergraduates and nearly 2,000 graduate students.

The University's 108-acre campus in Lisle features a comprehensive learning center with a full media library, a technically advanced science facility, two administrative buildings, three residence halls, Founders' Woods apartments, an athletic center, a small lake, a student center and the Village of Lisle-Benedictine University Sports Complex. Benedictine's Naperville campus is the Moser Center which meets the needs of adult students and area businesses.

Benedictine is a part of greater Chicago's business life. Internships and employment opportunities are available at several area corporations in the "Research Corridor" along I-88, which includes many Fortune 500 companies. The University enjoys the proximity and use of Argonne National Laboratory, Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory and the Morton Arboretum.

Benedictine offers 43 undergraduate majors through the College of Science, the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Business, the College of Education and Health Services and the Moser College of Adult and Professional Studies. Master's degrees are offered in accountancy, business administration, clinical exercise physiology, clinical psychology, education, management information systems, leadership, management and organizational behavior, nursing, nutrition and wellness, public health and science content and process. The University also offers a Ph.D. in Organization Development and an Ed.D. in Higher Education and Organizational Change.

Benedictine University is a Catholic university in the Benedictine tradition that provides a values-centered liberal arts education enriched by our excellence in science.

University of Dallas College of Business

The College of Business (COB) at the University of Dallas is a professional school whose primary mission is to prepare students to become competent and responsible managers and principled, ethical leaders. The COB includes the undergraduate Bachelor of Arts Business program and graduate business programs through the Graduate School of Management.

Founded in 2002, the Bachelor of Arts Business program integrates the core curriculum and the Catholic intellectual tradition with business and offers two concentration areas, International Business and Marketing. Undergraduate sophomores from across the University take part in a unique study abroad program based at the University of Dallas campus near Rome, Italy.

For the last forty-three years, the Graduate School of Management has offered programs geared toward the working professional. Today, the School offers a variety of degrees and programs including MBA, Master of Science (MS), MS-MBA Dual Degree, MBA Degree Completion, MBA Bridge Program, Graduate Certificates, English Language and PreMBA programs. The University of Dallas has its main campus in Irving, Texas, an international campus near Rome, Italy, and teaching facilities in Frisco and North Richland Hills, Texas. In addition, the Graduate School of Management offers a comprehensive online delivery option taught by the same professors who teach the on-campus courses. ### Rutgers University School of Management and Labor Relations and

Graduate School of Business Administration (GSBA)

(Supporting AOM Vice President and Program Chair Susan E. Jackson)

The School of Management and Labor Relations (SMLR), Rutgers University, was founded in 1947 as a legislatively-created Institute on the New Brunswick Campus of Rutgers University. Chartered in 1766 as Queen's College, Rutgers University is the eighth-oldest institution of higher education in the United States. A member of the Association of American Universities, it serves more than 62,000 graduate and undergraduate students. Today, SMLR's 30 faculty teach and conduct research in the areas of Human Resource Management and Labor and Employment Relations. Degree programs offered at SMLR address a variety of student needs and interests, and include a PhD degree, two professional masters' degrees, a global executive master's degree, and an undergraduate degree. SMLR also houses the Center for Human Resource Strategy, which is dedicated to shaping and advancing the field of human resource management through collaboration between SMLR's world-renowned HR faculty and senior HR thought-leaders in successful global and local corporations. Topics of joint interest to the faculty and executives involved include Environmentally Sustainable Organizations, Global HRM, Workforce Diversity, HR Metrics, Knowledge Management, Teamwork, Employee Engagement, and HR Architecture, among others.

Since 1968, the Graduate School of Business Administration Zürich (GSBA) has been committed to bringing together the worlds of global business practice and academic theory so as to put forward creative and sound innovations for an increasingly complex business reality. GSBA Zürich offers global part-time degree programs for executives from middle and upper management levels. It was the first business school in Germanspeaking Europe to offer an MBA degree program in cooperation with a university from the United States. Today, it also has cooperative degree programs with European universities for other degrees, including the Master of Science (with the University of Wales) and PhD (with the University of Leiden). These programs have prepared nearly 10,000 alumni to anticipate and manage change as well as to develop integrated solutions for entrepreneurial challenges in the complex international environment. In 2008, GSBA Zurich was awarded by EDUNIVERSAL the "3 palmes" designation. for being an excellent Business School, nationally strong, and having continental links.

Arizona State University W.P. Carey School of Business

and include more than 60 National Merit Scholars. For more information please visit wpcarey.asu.edu and http://knowledge.wpcarey.asu.edu.

Arizona State University is creating a new model for American higher education, an unprecedented combination of academic excellence, entrepreneurial energy and broad access. This New American University is a single, unified institution comprising four differentiated campuses positively impacting the economic, social, cultural and environmental health of the communities it serves. Its research is inspired by real world application, blurring the boundaries that traditionally separate academic disciplines. ASU serves more than 64,000 students in metropolitan Phoenix, Arizona, the nation's fifth largest city. ASU champions intellectual and cultural diversity, and welcomes students from all 50 states and more than 100 nations across the globe. For more information, go to asu.edu.

DePaul University College of Commerce

(Supporting AOM Local Arrangements Co-Chairs Lisa Gundry and Margaret Posig)

DePaul University is the eighth-largest private and largest Catholic university in the country. With more than 24,000 students, it offers more than 200 rigorous graduate and undergraduate degree programs through nine colleges and schools. Its two primary campuses in Lincoln Park and the Loop are complemented by four suburban campuses, a growing array of online degrees and international programs, and partnerships around the globe. Founded on the Vincentian principle of access for everyone, we remain committed to providing a quality education through personal attention to students from a wide range of backgrounds. DePaul's effectiveness in combining service with learning has been recognized by organizations ranging from "US. News & World Report" to "Colleges with a Conscience" and contributed toward it being ranked #1 in the "Great College Town" category by the Princeton Review. In 2007, DePaul was ranked first in the nation by the Princeton Review for "Diverse Student Population."

DePaul's College of Commerce encompasses the university's undergraduate business program and the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business, whose part-time MBA program was ranked sixth in the nation by U.S. News & World Report in its "America's Best Graduate Schools 2009" guidebook. The College of Commerce began offering classes in 1913 and prides itself on offering highly respected, practical, flexible programs of business study. It was one of the first 10 business colleges in the United States, as well as the first business school in downtown Chicago and the first business school at an American Catholic university

Pace University Lubin School of Business

The Academy of Management is located on the Briarcliff Manor, New York, Campus of Pace University. Prior to residing at Pace University, the Academy's head office was located at the volunteer treasurer's university, rotating with each new appointment. In 1994, the Academy's Board of Governors made the decision to hire professional staff for the growing association and conducted a national search for a more permanent home. Pace was selected from the field of potential candidates and the Academy has resided at Pace since 1994. The Academy of Management has benefited from the administrative and infrastructure support given by Pace University and in turn the Academy has contributed to the scholarly objectives of the Lubin School of Business. As in other successful models of this type in which preeminent and independent scholarly associations and universities align, Pace University and the Academy of Management have experienced a mutually beneficial relationship aimed at advancing their shared academic missions. The Academy of Management thanks Pace University and the Lubin School of Business for hosting its office and Website.

Monday, August 10, 2009 8:00 am - 4:30 pm

Tuesday, August 11, 2009 CLOSED – Please do not schedule interviews in this Placement Services for the 2009 annual meeting will be located in the Hyatt Regency, Chicago, 151 East Wacker Street, Chicago, 60601. Although the Online placement services are now on a rolling basis it is still necessary to indicate that you are interested in being a part of the annual Placement Services at the Conference—our summer career fair. You must "buy" this option and a table when you put in your new ad beginning in June and continuing through the meeting in Chicago. We will have training available on-site in Chicago if you are unsure on how to place your ad and the involvement in the summer career fair. Because we have a number of options, you will need to proceed to our website to determine your costs.

Recruiting Schools and Organizations: Please note that our summer career fair entitles you to have your ad visible to all applicants who sign up for the career fair, have the ability to see all the applicants on the Placement website, and allow you to rent an interview table in the Placement area where you can talk with prospective applicants. You may also choose to upgrade your ad to a sponsored version which will allow your logo and school information to be viewed by all applicants and not just those who selected you or your position type and to have your position information displayed to applicants in the restricted waiting area.

Applicants: You do not have to pay extra for the summer career fair but you do need to register for the conference. If you have any problems registering please bring your information to the Chicago meeting and we will be able to help you. If you have not yet paid your annual applicant fee of $35 then you will need to pay it and then you can register for the summer career fair.

Please note that the registration fees for Placement Services are separate from the registration fees for attending the annual meeting.

Tables are provided for conducting interviews during the Academy of Management's meeting in Chicago. They are located in small-medium size rooms (6–15 tables/room) and will be available from Saturday, August 8th until Monday, August 10th. Because of limited tables and small rooms, the cost to reserve a table for the meeting is $125. We may have some tables available on a daily rental basis at a prorated cost. Reservations will be available online with the purchase of an ad at http://careers.aomonline.org/placement/ beginning June 1st on a first come first served basis. Tables may be reserved on-site if space is available.

We will have several workshops to help recruiters and applicants with the registration and interview processes.

Placement Activities

We believe the interview areas offered by Placement Services are a very appropriate location for interviews. Additionally, interviews may be conducted in conversation areas available throughout the conference facilities. The conference hotels also offer a number of full and parlor suites that may be used for interviews.

The Academy of Management is concerned about providing appropriate settings for conducting interviews. Settings that will accommodate candidates with disabilities and that do not have the potential of creating an awkward interview environment. Hotel guest rooms are usually inappropriate settings for conducting recruiting interviews. If interviews must be conducted in hotel guest rooms, we offer the following suggestions: have multiple recruiters meet with each candidate; leave the guest room door ajar; ensure that the room is properly prepared to conduct interviews (i.e., beds are made, personal belongings are put away, etc.); maintain and encourage a professional demeanor by having all parties sit on chairs or sofas, wear shoes, and ask only appropriate questions; and above all, be sensitive to concerns of the other party by avoiding actions or comments that may make others uncomfortable.

Excerpt from the Academy's Code of Ethical Conduct

The Academy of Management and its members are committed to providing academic environments that are free of sexual harassment and all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation. Sexual harassment consists of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other visual, verbal, or physical conduct of a when:

- 1. It is implicitly or explicitly suggested that submission to or rejection of the conduct will be a factor in academic employment, admission, evaluation, or participation in an academic activity; or
- 2. The conduct has the purpose of interfering with an individual's academic or work performance, by creating an intimidating, hostile, or otherwise unacceptable educational or work environment.

The determination of what constitutes sexual harassment depends upon the specific facts and the context in which the conduct occurs. Sexual harassment takes many forms: subtle and indirect, blatant and overt. It can be conduct affecting an individual of the opposite sex or same sex, between peers or between individuals in a hierarchical relationship, or between teacher and student. Regardless of the intentions of the actor, the key question is always whether the conduct would be unwelcome to the individual to which it is directed.

The William H. Newman Award

The Academy of Management awards the William H. Newman Award for outstanding papers based on a recent dissertation. This prestigious award can be given to up to three papers a year. The papers must be (a) single authored; and (b) based on a doctoral dissertation completed within the last three years. Division Program Chairs nominate one paper each for this award. The Awards Committee, under the direction of Marshall Schminke (U. of Central Florida) selects papers that make a substantive contribution to knowledge based on rigorous and creative research designs. Committee members include: Harry G. Barkema, Rotterdam School of Management, Sigal Barsade, Wharton School, Univ. of Penn., Kristina Diekmann, Univ Of Utah, Pamela Hinds, Stanford University, Gregory B. Northcraft, University Of Illinois, James P. Walsh, University of Michigan, Ray Zammuto, University of Queensland

The Carolyn Dexter Award

The Carolyn Dexter Award is an all Academy award to the paper that best meets the objective of internationalizing the Academy. This serves the mission of the Academy and the charge of the International Theme Committee, which sponsors this Award. The criteria for this prestigious Award include the following: (a) The theme and content of the paper should reflect an awareness of business and management outside the domestic boundaries; (b) Collaboration between scholars from different countries is desirable; and (c) Papers are considered of high caliber for the Carolyn Dexter Award if they offer new insights, are rich in observation and employ creative methodologies. Especially welcomed are submissions of topics or methods that are not in the U.S. mainstream, but are important in other countries' research traditions. Each Division Program Chair nominates one paper to the chair of this year's Dexter Award Committee, Benson Honig, Wilfred Laurier U. The other Dexter Award Committee members are: Stephen A Drew, Florida Gulf Coast University, Jacob Eisenberg, University College Dublin, Benson Honig, Wilfrid Laurier, Claire A Simmers, Saint Joseph's University, James P. Walsh, University of Michigan, Monika Winn, University Of Victoria

2:00pm - 3:30pm Sheraton Chicago: Chicago 9

Come and connect with other researchers and teachers interested in Positive Organizational Scholarship and Positive Organizational Behavior. See POS friends and meet new colleagues with interests similar to your own. After reviewing new POS developments over the last year, we will have an opportunity to discuss research, teaching, and/or practice interests. We are seeking to create a forum in which scholars can get acquainted and make meaningful connections that will help them to develop in their work. Our hope is that everyone will come away with an energizing insight about their POS interest, such as a: research question, research idea, teaching idea, reference, funding source, research site, positive practice.

655 ⊕→ ← □CAU: (CAU) Turning "Grey" into "Green" -Looking at Entrepreneurship in the Informal Economy

9:45am - 11:15am Hyatt Regency Chicago: Skyway 281

What can we learn from informal entrepreneurs? Where is the line between formal and informal entrepreneurship? What personal, socio-cultural, organizational, and/or policy-related factors determine this line? Can it be moved, so as to turn a part of this informal energy into formal energy? To turn "grey" into "green", so to speak? And If yes, how? Some discussion points we wish to propose, but not limit ourselves to, are: definitional aspects, from both an economic and social perspectives • urban and rural perspectives• nascence of informality, drivers of emergence, conditions favoring/discouraging in-formality. structure and nature of 'informal' enterprise. nature of employment, labor type, occupational range. macroeconomic impacts of informal activities• research approaches that link micro- and macro levels • NGOs' contribution (e.g. in social and community services), to overall economic activity implications for household vulnerability and ergo for social and physical mobility.

informal health and education needs. bootstrapping methods and techniques• risk issues

The practices, processes and behavior of business leaders responsible for putting society "on the brink" had to be learned somewhere. Former Merrill Lynch CEO John Thaine did not have a medical condition that dictated the need for a $35,000 commode. Any objective assessment of where business leadership today acquired their core competencies has to include some of our most prestigious universities.

1449 $\blacksquare$ : (Paper Session) - (MSR) MSR Theme Session: Perspectives on Leaders and Leadership

11:30am - 1:00pm Hyatt Regency Chicago: Haymarket The complex economic, political, business and social crises in today's world seem to require new forms of leadership for ingenuity and excellence. Current leadership theories are largely based on Behavioral and economic models that ostensibly do not account for the real depth and richness of human experience required by today's leaders. In this MSR Theme Session on "Perspectives on Leaders and Leadership" we attempt to integrate cutting edge knowledge with emerging leadership theories, well proven ancient wisdom and practices. Four speakers will present discussion papers and talks on leaders and leadership from different perspectives. These include an emerging theory of leadership based on the needs for creativity, and intuitions; proposal of a leadership framework based on ancient Indian Karma-Yoga and self-management to inspire holistic performances by setting personal examples; and decision-making practice through democratically elected bodies of the "Bahai community"; and more. It is expected that the session will make sound contribution in addressing the complex leadership problems in today's increasingly competitive world, evolving Human Resource Management, and Management Spirituality & Religion

The organizers and committed attendees of this conference are top scholars in PE fit who have committed themselves to looking ahead at the future of PE fit research. The caucus will serve as a way to physically get together a broad group of international scholars, with the intention of taking a collaborative effort initiated at the caucus, and formalizing it into a book that focuses on new directions in PE fit and misfit research. Thus, the caucus will provide mechanism for a "mini-conference" on PE fit, without incurring additional travel expenses for our international colleagues. The caucus is open to all participants, with the hopes that new and up-and-coming scholars of fit will be interested and involved in this project. It should be viewed as a place to discuss and share the latest trends and breakthroughs in fit research, but also a place to influence future directions in fit research. Finally, we would like to learn from people in closely related fields such as job embeddedness, stress, job satisfaction and psychological contracts. Insights from all these, and more, will help us better understand the domain of PE fit and misfit. Organizers: Amy L. Kristof-Brown, U. of Iowa; Jon Billsberry, Coventry U.

Participants: Jeffrey R. Edwards, U. of North Carolina; Annelies Van Vianen, U. of Amsterdam; Danielle Talbot, Open U., United Kingdom; Karen Jansen, U. of Virginia; Abbie J. ## Notes

Get Involved, Make a Difference, and Have Some Fun!!!

All-Academy Activities brought to you by the Local Arrangements Committee

All-Academy Closing Reception! Come Hear the CTA! End on a High Note!

We are pleased to present the Chicago Trombone Authority (CTA) for your entertainment pleasure at the All-Academy Closing Reception on Tuesday 8/11, from 5:00 – 7:00 pm, at the Hyatt Regency Grand Ballroom. The CTA is an eclectic collection of some of the best trombonists from the Chicago area. Their mission is to preserve, promote, and enhance the legacy of the trombone and the music written for it. With performing ensembles varying in size from 4 to 20, the CTA is building a strong following and is now in its third year of existence.

March in with the CTA to the reception and learn about the trombone. Then enjoy your friends and colleagues while the CTA plays all styles of music in the background. Appetizers and drinks will be provided as well at our annual closing reception. Let's end on a high note!

Conference T-shirts - "Green Management" really does matter, and this year the Local Arrangements Committee decided to do what we could to make a difference. Although we were able to find t-shirt suppliers who were environmentally- and socially-responsible, we ultimately realized that the biggest difference would result from saving the cotton, carbon emissions, etc. that would be required to produce and ship the t-shirts. Why bring one more t-shirt into this world when we really do not need it?

Growing Power Donations - You can help us to make a difference with your contribution to the local charity that we have selected, Growing Power. Although you will not receive a t-shirt for your donation this year, you will receive the satisfaction of knowing that you have made a difference in the lives of local Chicago area residents who are growing their own healthy food, right in the heart of the metro area! Be sure to visit the Growing Power desk on site at the Hyatt to make your donation. You may also donate online using the link at the "Go Green" page of the 2009 AOM Annual Meeting website or go directly to http://www.growingpower.org/Index.htm. (Be sure to note the Academy in the memo section.) The Local Arrangements Committee chose Growing Power as the official charity this year because of the contribution to environmental, social and economic sustainability that this organization is making.

Academy Service Project — Growing Power is also the site and partner for the 2009 Academy Service Project. In partnership with the Chicago Park District and a local landscaping business, Growing Power has created a 20,000 square foot urban farm on Chicago's lakefront, located adjacent to Buckingham Fountain and Lincoln Memorial in Grant Park near the intersection of East Congress Parkway and South Columbus Drive, only a ten to twenty minute walk from the conference hotels. Those interested in giving something back to our host community this year are encouraged to devote three hours of service at the Grant Park urban farm. Service will consist of activities such as general garden clean-up and beautification, adding compost to growing beds, bed preparation, weeding, and planting.

Individuals can volunteer for any one or more of three different project times on Friday August 7th or Saturday August 8th: Friday 1-4, Saturday 9-noon, or Saturday 1-4. Space may still be available. Contact Gordon Rands at 309-255-1735 (cell) if you are interested in participating.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Strategy and the Multinational Company John B. Cullen and K. Praveen Parboteeah A new, 4 color international business text for an ever changing global environment, this book covers the same material and more when compared with other international business texts, yet it is priced under $100.

ALLEVIATING POVERTY THROUGH PROFITABLE PARTNERSHIPS

Globalization, Markets, and Economic Well-Being

Patricia H. Werhane, Scott P. Kelley, Laura P. Hartman and Dennis J. Moberg

Offering powerful ideas backed by the support of some of the leading Business Ethics minds these scholars have created a book that is unique and provocative yet still ideal for courses at the undergraduate level.

BUSINESS ETHICS

Brief Readings on Vital Topics Archie B. Carroll

Written in an open and engaging style, this book features topics that are timely, each followed by several thought provoking discussion questions. The book includes readings on the current financial crisis in order to challenge today's students to confront the economic reality in which they will have to live.

2ND EDITION

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Themes and Issues in the Modern Global Economy

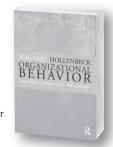

Featuring a wealth of new case studies, updated pedagogy, a totally revised page design and a website to run alongside the text offering support and extra resources for students and lecturers.

Edited by John A. Wagner III and John Hollenbeck

Written to motivate exceptional student performance, this book requires the student to think and take seriously organizational behavior and why its importance is one of the keys to securing competitive advantage.

READINGS IN ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR Edited by John A. Wagner III and John Hollenbeck

This Reader complements the textbook, also authored by John Wagner and John Hollenbeck, Organizational Behavior: Securing Competitive Advantage. However, it is a worthwhile addition to any course in Organizational Behavior.

MANAGEMENT CONSULTING TODAY AND TOMORROW

Perspectives and Advice from 20 Leading World Experts

Edited by Larry E. Greiner and Flemming Poulfelt

This book provides a thorough examination of a variety of specialties within the broad range of management consulting. While covering all the major practice areas of consulting, it also offers new insights into change processes and addresses compelling management issues now facing consulting firms.

Management Consulting Today and Tomorrow Casebook

Enhancing Skills to Become Better Professionals

Edited by Larry E. Greiner, Thomas H. Olson and Flemming Poulfelt

Consisting of 20 cases, including those from Harvard, Stanford and the University of Southern California, this casebook complements the text Management Consulting Today and Tomorrow.

Routledge & Psychology Press, divisions of Taylor and Francis Publishing are very pleased to announce our new series editors in ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT:

> KIMBERLY D. ELSBACH, University of California, Davis and MICHAEL FRESE, University of Giessen and London Business School

Kim and Michael will join Arthur Brief (University of Utah) on this series, and we welcome your ideas for authored or edited books. The aim of this series is to establish new avenues of inquiry and significantly alter the course of contemporary research in organizational studies and management. We are very proud of this line of scholarly books, which began at Lawrence Erlbaum and Associates and remain committed to growing the series with the help of these wonderful new series editors.

We also want to thank James P. Walsh, President of the Academy of Management, for serving as our series editor for the past eleven years. Jim, we thank you for your time and attention over the years.

Exploring Positive Identities and Organizations

Building a Theoretical and Research Foundation Laura Morgan Roberts, and Jane E. Dutton,

In the new world of work and organizations, creating and maintaining a positive identity is consequential and challenging for individuals, for groups and for organizations. New challenges for positive identity construction and maintenance require new theory. This edited volume uncovers new topics and new theoretical approaches to identity through the specific focus on positive identities of individuals, groups, organizations and communities.

Culture and Leadership Across the World

The GLOBE Book of In-Depth Studies of 25 Societies Jagdeep S. Chhokar, Felix C. Brodbeck, and Robert J. House

Culture and Leadership Across the World: The GLOBE Book of In-Depth Studies of 25 Societies is the second major publication of GLOBE (Global Leadership and Organizational Behavior Effectiveness), a groundbreaking, large-scale project on international management research featuring contributions from nearly 18,000 middle managers from 1,000 organizations in 62 countries, is perhaps the largest project of its kind ever undertaken.

The People Make the Place

Dynamic Linkages Between Individuals and Organizations D. Brent Smith

This volume, in honor of Ben Schneider, highlights his work on the Attraction-Selection-Attrition (ASA) model of organizational behavior which has become one of the most important models in the history of Personnel Psychology. The central tenet of the ASA model is that people matter. Although organizational structure processes, and climate and culture are important, they are fundamentally a reflection of the unique collection of people who populate an organization.

This edited volume of original scholarly contributions will add insight to the many implications of Schneider's thinking on the ASA model and organizational climate.

A Contemporary Look at Organizational Justice

Multiplying Insult Times Injury Joel Brockner

This book is about the role of fairness in resolving workplace conflict. This book will look at the interactive effects of outcome favorability and process fairness on people's beliefs and behaviors. As we know, people react better when their outcomes are more favorable. If the process, however, is unfair the outcomes are less favorable. This academic book will look at the theory and research about the interactive relationship between outcome favorability and process fairness. Ideas in this book will forge connections between the justice literature and other prominent bodies of knowledge in organizational and social psychology, including those pertaining to trust, social identity, attribution theory, and cross cultural differences. This book will provide a unifying research based lens for the conceptual and empirical work recently done in the area of organizational justice. January, 2010
